Report Cards

First instructional quarter report cards should arrive home with your children today (Wednesday, November 7). If you have questions, please contact the teacher who gave the grade.

Lincoln Food Bank

The Maxey Student Council is sponsoring the Lincoln Food Bank this month. The donation barrels will be located in the front hall till November 15. Please contribute non-perishable items such as canned foods, boxed items such as noodles, mac and cheese, pudding, jello, stuffing etc. Thank you in advance for your contributions!
Maxey Student Council

PTO Meeting, Monday, November 12

The general PTO meeting is scheduled on Monday, November 12 at 7:00 p.m. in the multipurpose room. Officer Jason Helmuth will be speaking to parents and staff about safety and security in our city with some information about gang activity in Lincoln.

The Executive Committee of the PTO meets at 6:00 p.m. on Monday, November 12 and anyone wishing to attend is most welcome. We meet in the conference room located in the office.

Students Learn "Stranger Danger" Information

Officer Helmuth will meet with each grade level of Maxey students to review "Stranger Danger" information during the week of November 12.

Update on Construction

The information last reported in the "Maxey Messenger" is still current. We are now having students exit for lunch recess out the multipurpose room exit door. This is something we have not been able to do for over a year.
