BackPack Extra Mile T-Shirts...Wear Them to School This Friday!

To show our school spirit, we invite any students or staff who are participating in the Backpack program to wear their Backpack Extra Mile T-Shirt to school on Friday, April 25. These are going home with students today. The "Walk" is scheduled for Saturday, April 26 at East High School at 10:00 a.m. We have 300 students signed up for the walk and they will wear their t-shirts on April 26 designating them as participants in the LPS Backpack Extra Mile Program. This response is overwhelming and very exciting to see that the Maxey Community supports those LPS children in other schools who are less fortunate. Do keep in mind that 100 percent of donations go to the Lincoln Food Bank to fill backpacks of food for needy children each weekend throughout the year.

If you have questions, please feel free to contact Amy Kozak (akozak@lps.org) or Sean Bailey (seabail@lps.org), Maxey Co-chairs for this event.

Hello, Friends of Girls on the Run of Nebraska!

Nearly 200 little girls in Lincoln are huffing and puffing and PLAYING their way to complete the first annual LINCOLN WONDER GIRL 5K on Friday, May 23 at Holmes Lake!

We're looking for an equal number of WONDER GUYS and WONDER GALS to join them on the course for what will be an uplifting and exciting way to get that daily workout. Holmes Lake is a beautiful setting for our family-friendly event, and the 5K is open to runners and walkers of all ages and abilities. We'll have awesome music, post-5K munchies and give-aways to add to the fun.
